

The Magic of Watercolour and Synthetic Paper with Colleen Gray

- $75.00 per person
- supplies include
- bring two 10x10" pieces of cardboard and a *blow dryer (*optional)
- if you have preferred watercolour brushes bring them with you

North Crosby Hall
Sunday October 25 - 10-4pm

Explore a beautiful, meditative, and sometimes unpredictable, contemporary medium. You'll see how to use your watercolours in a whole new way.

To see Colleen's work visit colleengrayart.ca

"I can't wait to show you this beautiful style of painting!"

Some of Colleen's artwork supports Art for Aid, a project she established in 2013 to put art supplies into remote Indigenous schools in Canada. Colleen sells her original work so she can work as a volunteer running Art for Aid.

PHILANTHROPIC RECOGNITION:

The Governor General of Canada Sovereign's Medal for Volunteering Colleen Gray - Award
Presented September 17, 2021

*"... for her role in supporting art exploration through access to art supplies and creative art programs in Canadian remote Indigenous schools through The Art For Aid Project." Art For Aid is grateful to operate under the Canadian registered charity, Soaring Circle. Together we support dynamic and accessible changes for Indigenous youth across Canada. www.artforaidshop.ca, www.soaringcircle.ca
Art for Aid Media: www.artforaid.ca/media-coverage*

If you are able, please bring a donation of new or used art supplies for this very worthy cause.